- Article 6 1(c) of the GDPR which allows processing that is necessary to comply with a legal obligation;
- Article 6 1(d) of the GDPR which allows processing that is necessary to protect vital interests;
- Article 6 1(e) of the GDPR which allows processing that is necessary in order for the school to function;
- Article 6 1(f) of the GDPR which allows processing that is in our legitimate interests;
- Article 9 2(b) of the GDPR which allows the processing of special category data that is necessary for carrying out obligations in the fields of employment and social security and social protection law;
- Article 9 2(g) of the GDPR which allows the processing of special category data that is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest;
- Article 9 2(j) of the GDPR which allows the processing of special category data when it is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

The processing of personal data and the identification of a relevant lawful basis of processing is subject to an ongoing review and is consistently being reviewed as part of our efforts to adhere to the principles of data protection.

Storing your data

Your data is processed using a combination of cloud-based information management systems, cloud storage and sharing facilities, on local file servers and in paper copies. In accordance with data protection legislation it is only retained for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was obtained, and not kept indefinitely.

We have a policy which explains how long we keep information. It is called a Data Retention Schedule and you can ask for a copy at reception and can be found in the Ark Library.

Transfer outside of the European Economic Area (EEA)

We do not normally transfer your information to a different country outside the EEA. However, some of our external third-party support partners are based outside the EEA so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of data outside the EEA.

Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented, including:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission;
- Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contractual clauses approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe.

Who we share your data with

We do not share your information with anyone without permission unless the law says we can or should. We share information with the following:

Local Authority

We are required to share information about our workforce staff members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (No 2) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from various sources, including educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our children and young people with the DfE for the purpose of those data collections, under:

Examples for school workforce staff census:

- We are required to share information about our school employees with the DfE under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments;
- All data is transferred securely and held by the DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework;

Other third parties

- We disclose your phone number and email address to the Disclosure and Barring Service for the purposes of carrying out checks on your suitability for work with children;
- We disclose details about you, including national insurance number and bank details, to our payroll provider to enable you to be paid;
- Our HR People team will hold information about you. Our system supplier can also see your personal data for the purposes of HR People management;
- We share your identity and pay information with HMRC in conjunction with your legal obligation to pay income tax and make national insurance contributions;
- Where you have decided to become part of a salary sacrifice scheme such as that for child care vouchers, we share your details with the provider to the extent necessary for them to provide the vouchers to you. We also share your personal data with our 'Rewards' providers;
- We share your details with your pension provider in order to make sure that you pay the correct amount and maintain your entitlement to a pension upon your retirement. For teachers the scheme is the TPS, for support staff the scheme is LGPS [or state if different].

There are some additional external organisations that your data may be shared with:

- Your new school if you move schools;
